

February Newsletter

By Hillary Altes, Hayden Steiner, Talia DePodesta, and Isabella Devitt

Show Reminders

Thank you to all of the DC members who watched the Upper School showcases! Your support is deeply appreciated. We hope you come to see the third show of the season, Now. Here. This. The musical touches on several themes that are prevalent to modern society, including acceptance and individuality, through the lens of high school students. We hope you can come watch it on February 26th-28th!

Also, auditions for the middle school musical are quickly approaching! Honk, jr. tells the story of the ugly duckling through a comedic lens. Auditions are due February 18th via Flipgrid, so be sure to email dramaclub@francisparker.org if you are interested in auditioning!

Additionally, the Drama Club Cabaret has been moved to March (26 or 27) in honor of Ms. M's birthday! We would love as much club participation as possible since it is a fundraiser for Broadway Cares and an incredible opportunity to perform. More information will be sent out shortly!

Dates & Birthdays

Here is the link to the February birthdays and important dates page! Please take note of the workshop dates and make sure you have filled out the RSVP form Eleni sent.

Virtual Bio Board

Here is the second virtual bio board of 2021! This month's bio board was put together by our amazing DC Historians, Mary and Michele, and it depicts Xanadu. Check it out here!

Share the Love!

Hello wonderful DC! As you all know, Valentine's Day is coming up. Now is the perfect time to show your love and appreciation for the Drama Club! A simple way to do this is supporting your fellow members in their shows/showcases or their other endeavors. You could also write a letter, text, or email to your mentor/mentee or fellow DC members. Remember to share the love!

